

HOMELESS RESOURCES

HOMELESS ACCESS CENTERS

Homeless Access Centers serve as a walk in entry point for homeless individuals seeking supportive services and housing referrals. Families with children should call 211 for a Family Solution Center before walking into an Access center.

HOMELESS FAMILY SHELTERS

Homeless family shelters provide families with immediate emergency shelter, basic needs and supportive services such as case management and housing referrals. For more information contact Los Angeles Homeless Service Authority or visit their website at www.lahsa.org.

*All shelters require ID for parent(s), birth certificate for all kids, SS card for everyone, immunization records for kids, proof of income, TB test required. Call shelter first to see if they require a referral from a Family Solutions Center as most family shelters now do. Shelters marked with * are Family Solution Centers.
